CROATIA

Increasingly popular as a meetings and incentives destination, this Adriatic haven offers tranquility and seclusion, allowing delegates to enjoy the best of both worlds – excellent facilities coupled with outstanding leisure opportunities. GERMANY

GERMANY

As Germany's largest, most dynamic city, Berlin sets a frantic pace. Creativity is everywhere, with new buildings, innovative exhibitions and frenetic nightlife, yet there are also echoes of the city's past. Attractions such as the Brandenburg Gate and the Tiergarten adorn the Mitte district, along with the magnificent art museums of the Kulturforum and the impressive modern skyscrapers of the Potsdamer Platz.

Sitting among gentle hills, the city of Trier boasts the premier collection of Roman remains in Northern Europe. Yet the city is also contemporary and cosmopolitan, with extensive vineyards and a large student population often frequenting the Hauptmarkt which has served as Trier's marketplace since medieval times. With its proximity to Luxembourg and France Trier has a pleasantly relaxed feel, with historical sites such as the 11th-century St Peter's Cathedral, the Porta Nigra and the Kaiserthermen emphasising the city's elaborate history spanning 2,000 years.

UNITED KINGDOM

Steeped in history and culture, it's no surprise that the United Kingdom is one of the world's leading destinations. Its capital, London, is blessed with historical sites at every turn, from the landmark Houses of Parliament to Buckingham Palace and St Paul's Cathedral. World-class theatre, opera and contemporary music are performed every day, and award-winning restaurants and lively nightclubs attract visitors from the world over.

Cardiff has re-defined itself with developments such as the Millennium Stadium and the Welsh National Assembly and Millennium Centre on the rejuvenated Cardiff Bay waterfront. As Yorkshire's commercial capital, Leeds is capitalising on its Victorian past to create awe-inspiring attractions such as the Royal Armouries that are both contemporary and rich in history. And once known for lace and pharmaceuticals, the city of Nottingham is still associated with the legendary 13th-century outlaw Robin Hood.
